Biography

Rufus L. Moore III ("Tré") is an Associate in BCLP's Business and Commercial Disputes group. He represents clients in a variety of business disputes and litigation matters, including international commercial and investor-State arbitration. He also provides pro bono legal services to re-entry participants who are involved in the Concordance Program.

Tré received his J.D. and an LL.M. in Negotiation and Dispute Resolution from Washington University in St. Louis School of Law. While in law school, he served as an Executive Notes Editor for the Global Studies Law Review. He also assisted community members in landlord-tenant disputes as a member of WashU Law's Community Justice and Mediation Clinic, provided mediation services under faculty supervision in St. Louis County Pro-Se Housing Court through the St. Louis Mediation Project and was a member of the Willem C. Vis International Arbitration Moot Court team, serving as both an oralist and a coach.

Prior to law school, Tré worked for a global technology solutions provider.
