BCLP CONTINUES REAL ESTATE GROWTH WITH ADDITION OF REAL ESTATE FINANCE PARTNER

Sep 26, 2023

International law firm BCLP today announced the addition of new Partner Matthew Royko to the Real Estate Department. He joins BCLP in the Atlanta office.

Matthew focuses his practice on real estate banking and finance matters, specifically the areas of secured and unsecured lending transactions and acquisition financings. He has represented lenders in REIT financings as well as mezzanine and conduit loans. His clients have included syndicate banks, agents and international corporations in bi-lateral and syndicated acquisitions and working capital financings.

A substantial portion of Mr. Royko's practice involves representing loan servicers in connection with loan assumptions, preferred equity investments and transfers of interest transactions. He has also represented buyers and sellers of commercial properties and raw land.

"Matt's addition to our global Real Estate Practice will benefit our clients firmwide," said US Regional Leader - Commercial Real Estate Andrew Auerbach. "His broad experience across the full range of real estate financing, will complement our practice nicely. We are very happy to welcome him to BCLP and look forward to the expansion of new and existing relationships."

Matthew joins from Dentons.
