COMPLEX SALE OF UNIVERSITY ADVISED BY MULTI-PRACTICE BCLP TEAM

Nov 17, 2023

A cross-office, cross-practice team advised Beka Finance, based in Madrid, Spain, in its sale of Tampa-based Schiller International University (SIU) to Global Edu Services Limited (GEDU), a private limited company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales.

With campuses in Tampa, Madrid, Paris and Heidelberg, Schiller International University offers courses in international relations and diplomacy, business, tech and data, international tourism and sustainability. GEDU acquired SIU from KIP SIU LLC, a Florida limited liability company, Reinga Investments, S.L., a company incorporated under the laws of Spain and the sole member of the company, with Beka Financial Markets Holdings, S.L., a company incorporated under the laws of Spain, and Carlos Tejera Osuna, as guarantors.

The BCLP M&A and Corporate Finance deal team also worked across multiple practices including Data Privacy & Security, Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation, Employment, Tax and IP Disputes to help bring this transaction over the finish line.

The core deal team included Partner Bob Newmark and Associates Alan Schilling, Shehmin Awan and Lauren Beeman, supported by Aaron Lapniewski (Rep & Warranty Insurance), Jessica Edwards (Tax), Lucinda Althausen (IP), Meredith Silliman (EBEC), Anthony George (Employment), Goli Mahdavi (Data Privacy) and Demmie Nicozisin (MACF).
