Dec 16, 2020

Two attorneys from Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner have been recognized as among the nation's best for delivering superior service to corporate clients in the BTI Client Service All-Stars 2020 report. BTI compiles this annual list by polling hundreds of general counsel and other legal decision makers nationwide.

This year's list features 475 attorneys, including St. Louis Partner Louis Bonacorsi and Attorney Natalie Becker.

Bonacorsi is a trial lawyer who concentrates in the trial and coordination of commercial lawsuits and proceedings involving business tort, contract, insurance, intellectual property, real property and telecommunications law. His practice also includes defense of consumer litigation involving banks and other credit providers. He represents his clients in local, federal and state courts and administrative agencies.

Becker is a senior practice solutions attorney on the Practice Solutions Team and has extensive project management experience in large-scale litigation projects, notably in the areas of product liability, commercial litigation, antitrust, real estate and contracts. She has worked on multiple government investigations and second requests involving the SEC and DOJ, as well as due diligence projects. Becker is also a member of BCLP's Innovation Champions and a Kira Champion, involved in the firmwide launch of Kira, a machine learning data extraction tool that further optimizes volume-oriented assignments.
