BIOGRAPHY

Amy Wilson is the Atlanta Office Managing Partner and a leading corporate and M&A lawyer with over 15 years of experience. In her practice she regularly advises private and public companies in connection with mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance matters, and general corporate matters. She brings specific experience leading complex cross-border M&A transactions, special purpose acquisition company (or “SPAC”) transactions, internal restructurings, spinoffs, and divestitures. Amy represents private equity firms in their acquisitions, dispositions, recapitalizations, and financings, as well as private founder-owned companies and publicly traded companies.

Her experience covers a range of industries, and most recently she has led deals for clients operating and investing in the software and technology, financial services, REIT, health care, and manufacturing sectors.

Amy brings a practical, problem-solving approach to help clients accomplish their business goals.
