BCLP's Phoenix office, established in 1987, serves the growing needs of our clients in the Southwestern United States, whether those needs are local, national or global.

The lawyers in our Phoenix office are engaged in representations involving antitrust, class actions, business and commercial litigation, labor and employment, intellectual property, environmental, real estate, and bankruptcy and loan workout matters.

Our Phoenix attorneys also are involved with many civic and charitable organizations, including the American Bankruptcy Institute, Arizona Equal Justice Foundation, Arizona Mexico Commission, Arizona State University Foundation, Fresh Start Women's Foundation, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Greater Phoenix Leadership, Greater Phoenix Convention and Visitors Bureau, Maricopa County Bar Foundation, Maricopa Volunteer Center, National Asian Pacific American Bar Association, Phoenix Art Museum, Turnaround Management Association and Volunteer Lawyers Program.

As a result of this philanthropic commitment, lawyers in the Phoenix office have been honored with various awards over the past few years for their pro bono advocacy efforts for the Volunteer Lawyers Program of Maricopa County, including Adoption Attorney of the Year and Lawyer of the Month, and the Arizona Supreme Court's Pro Bono Service Award. Several Phoenix office attorneys have been recognized as top pro bono attorneys in Arizona by the Arizona Foundation for Legal Services and Education.

PFAS in Consumer Products: State-by-State Regulations

Manufacturers, distributors, and retailers of consumer products across a broad spectrum of industries are being impacted by state laws regulating the presence of per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (“PFAS”) in their products. This area is rapidly developing as states create new laws or amend existing ones, and the penalties and litigation risks for non-compliance can be significant.
