Established in 1971, the Colorado Springs office of BCLP became part of the firm as a result of the combination with Holme Roberts & Owen. The attorneys in Colorado Springs serve clients locally, nationally and internationally and are committed to offering creative, personal and efficient legal solutions.

The Colorado Springs office represents a broad range of commercial and nonprofit clients, including startup and high-technology enterprises, professional and nonprofit sports and charitable organizations, educational institutions, and religious organizations.

COMMUNITY

Attorneys and staff in the Colorado Springs office are actively involved in their community and participate in numerous non-profit organizations and associations. The entire list is long and in depth, and includes the following: American Heart Association, Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, Christian Legal Society, Colorado Sports Council, Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center, Colorado Springs Young Life Committee, JA Worldwide, Pikes Peak Legal Services, USOC Anti-Doping Task Force and YMCA of the Pikes Peak Region, to name a few. The office also plays an active role in support of Silver Key Senior Services - Meals on Wheels program and Care & Share and provides substantial pro bono services within the community.

PFAS in Consumer Products: State-by-State Regulations

Manufacturers, distributors, and retailers of consumer products across a broad spectrum of industries are being impacted by state laws regulating the presence of per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (“PFAS”) in their products. This area is rapidly developing as states create new laws or amend existing ones, and the penalties and litigation risks for non-compliance can be significant.
