BIOGRAPHY

Dominik Weiss advises both national and international clients in all intellectual property (IP) matters. He has broad litigation experience in the fields of unfair competition and trademark law and design protection. He assists clients with the registration of national and international trademarks and represents them in the various proceedings before the European Intellectual Property Office (EUIPO) and the German Patent and Trademark Office (GPTO). Another focus of his practice lies in advising companies with regard to transaction-related IP matters.

In addition, Dominik advises on IT and technology related issues, including e-commerce, data privacy and artificial intelligence. He helps numerous clients address the legal issues surrounding major IT projects, the structuring of online shops and other Internet pages, and the licensing and distribution of software and other IT products. Furthermore, he advises on all aspects of data privacy law, including direct marketing, market and opinion research, data transfer within companies and third-party states.

Dominik also has significant experience in advising and representing international clients during complex commercial disputes before courts and arbitration proceedings, often in a cross border context.

Information Commissioner's open letter to the UK Prime Minister - Key Takeaways

On 16 January 2025, in an open statement and letter, the UK Information Commissioner, John Edwards, responded to the December 2024 letter from the UK Prime Minister, the Chancellor, and the Business Secretary. He set out the ICO25 strategic plan and highlighted a few interesting points. The plan confirms that responsible innovation and sustainable economic growth are core strategic objectives for the data protection regulator. Additionally, the importance of data protection and information rights are noted as essential building blocks for the ICO's strategic plans, as they ensure public trust and consumer confidence alongside offering businesses security and certainty upon which to build for the future.

EMEA- Data Privacy, Digital and AI Round Up 2024/2025

As expected in the data privacy and digital space, 2024 shaped up to be a year full of guidance, consultations, regulatory focus areas and legislative updates. Artificial Intelligence (AI) remained a hot topic with advertising technology (AdTech) closely following its heels. With the blizzard of global data protection developments continuing unabated in 2024 with no doubt more to come in 2025, it is a good moment to look back at what 2024 held for businesses as well as to consider what 2025 may hold in the EMEA region.
