BIOGRAPHY

Elizabeth is the Global Practice Group Leader for the Tax, Employee Benefits and Private Client teams, advising on all areas of taxation both in the UK and on cross-border transactions with particular specialization in complex real estate tax. She acts for a wide range of property owners and occupiers including commercial property owners, real estate, private equity funds, REITS, investors (such as Sovereign Wealth Funds) and developers.

She has more than 20 years' experience in advising on tax matters, covering mergers, acquisitions, structured property and structured finance transactions, and she has particular experience of property related tax issues including VAT, capital allowances and stamp duty land tax.

Elizabeth is a Chartered Tax Adviser and a regular contributor to The Tax Journal and publications for the Chartered Institute of Taxation, and frequently speaks at external conferences. Elizabeth was named as 'Commercial Lawyer of the Year' at the Women and Diversity in Law Awards 2024, and has previously been included in the Lawyer magazine's 'Hot 100' list (the 100 most influential lawyers in their various fields).

Elizabeth is consistently recognized by the legal directories for her Tax practice. She is ranked Band 1 for Tax: Real Estate in Chambers UK 2025 and in the Chambers Global Guide, and as a 'Leading Partner' for Corporate Tax, and VAT and Indirect Tax in Legal 500 UK 2025.

Autumn Budget 2024 – what's the tax impact on the real estate sector?

The real estate sector was not ignored by Budget announcements today. There were no seismic changes – the changes announced were less impactful than the speculation in the weeks preceding the Budget. However, there are a series of measures for the sector, some taking effect immediately and others in stages.
