BIOGRAPHY

Antony has been a leading figure in real estate funds for several years and has an excellent reputation in this area. He is a graduate of Harvard Law School and has taught law at Cambridge. He is experienced in a variety of corporate finance work with a particular emphasis on working with investment funds both on the investment and the fund structuring side.

Antony is skilled in his field and manages relationships with high profile clients, as well as a series of international sovereign wealth funds, who act as cornerstone investors in many of the larger institutional funds.

He is consistently praised by clients for the outstanding value that he brings to their matters.

He is regularly ranked as a leading individual in Chambers and Legal 500 for Investment Funds: Real Estate.

Antony is recognized within The Best Lawyers™ UK 2025.

EXPERIENCE

- Aviva Investors Global Services Limited - Raising new equity from existing investors in the Ashtenne Industrial Fund. The fundraising was undertaken against the backdrop of the insolvency of Warner Estates PLC which abridged the usual timetable that would have applied.
- The Canary Wharf syndicate vehicle - Creation of a syndicate backed by Middle Eastern, Far Eastern and US investors, to entered into a joint venture with Land Securities Plc to develop the "Walkie Talkie" - one of the largest office developments in the City.
- 2014 restructure of WELPUT - Advised on restructuring, acting closely with Schrodgers (the manager) on the modernisation of the terms of the fund, in particular the introduction of redemption provisions and new fee arrangements.
- Kings Cross Regeneration Project - Acted for the various sellers of interests in the Kings Cross LP in their sale to AusSuper - the Kings Cross site stands out as the most notable example of inner London regeneration and the sale was the culmination of more than 15 years' work on the site.
