10th anniversary of the International Competition Network

June 1, 2011

To mark the 10th anniversary of the International Competition Network, Dave Anderson contributed to a book of essays entitled: “The International Competition Network at Ten: Origins, Accomplishments and Aspirations” (ed. P Lugard, Intersential Publishing). Dave has been active in the ICN since its inception and is one of a select number of private sector lawyers participating as "non-governmental advisers" (NGA) where Dave serves the European Commission. Dave's essay reflected on the role of NGAs and the private sector in the law and policy work of the ICN during its first decade and beyond.
