BIOGRAPHY

Kent Wittrock has spent more than 17 years partnering with his clients on their most strategic matters, having closed well over $2 billion of middle-market merger and acquisition transactions. Clients have recognized Kent for his quality legal advice, industry knowledge, strategic thinking, responsiveness, collaboration, tailored fee structures, use of technology, loyalty and ethics. Today, he serves as lead deal counsel closing transactions in a wide range of industries including agribusiness and food, manufacturing, distribution, business services and health care, and regularly acts as outside general counsel to mid-sized companies on contractual and general business matters.
