BCLP HOSTS GLOBAL LEGAL HACKATHON IN ST. LOUIS

March 6-8

BCLP is hosting the St. Louis node of the world's largest legal hackathon – the Global Legal Hackathon (GLH) – on March 6-8. Anyone in the local community, including attorneys, paralegals, developers, students, legal innovators and social justice advocates, is welcome to attend for free. A hackathon is a competition where multidisciplinary teams come together to collaborate, build and launch solutions aimed at a particular problem. The goal is to bring the legal industry together, worldwide, to apply innovative ideas and emerging technologies to progress the business of law, or to facilitate equal access to justice for the broader community. To get involved, go to legalthackstl.com.
