

WARNING: FRAUDULENT EMPLOYMENT SCAMS

Please be advised that recently there have been fraudulent job offers and interviews using the BCLP name, logo and even the names of our current employees.

Please be aware that BCLP will:

- Never ask for payment of any kind as part of our hiring or onboarding processes
- Never ask an applicant to email sensitive personal information, such as a Social Security Number, birthdate, credit card or bank account information
- Never issue pre-employment checks to purchase office supplies
- Never extend offers to applicants for solely work-from-home positions

If you have any question about a position posted in our company name, please check our current open positions on the BCLP website Careers pages or contact one of our recruiting team members directly.

You can find additional information about this scam and report any fraudulent employment offers Federal Trade Commission's website. If you have been the victim of a scam, please contact your local law enforcement agency.
