TUSON FEATURED AS THE TIMES 'LAWYER OF THE WEEK'

May 29, 2020

London Partner Andrew Tuson was featured in The Times' weekly "Lawyer of the Week" column published on May 28. He was particularly highlighted for his successful defense recently of London Stock Exchange after the court dismissed a claim brought by litigation funder Burford Capital Limited. Burford sought to have London Stock Exchange disclose the identities of market participants involved in trading Burford's shares. It was the first action of its type against a British trading venue.

Tuson acts for retail and investment banks, trading houses and corporate clients in investigations, court proceedings and cross-border regulatory enforcement actions concerning benchmarks, structured products, financial instruments, commodities, fraud and financial crime. He specializes in cases of market abuse and market manipulation.
