BIOGRAPHY

Nathan Puckett is a litigator whose practice includes business and commercial disputes, class actions, civil appeals, and pro bono advocacy.

Nathan was a 2019 summer associate in BCLP's St. Louis office. During law school at Washington University in St. Louis, he was a member of the law school's national moot court team, was a staff editor of the Journal of Law & Policy and interned at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Missouri and at ArchCity Defenders. Nathan volunteers with voter protection efforts in Missouri.

Prior to law school, Nathan worked at a Chicago nonprofit organization providing youth and family services to low-income and immigrant communities.
