Hong Kong SAR Policy Address 2024

The Policy Address 2024 of Hong Kong was delivered by the Chief Executive on 16 October 2024 (the “Policy Address”). Among a series of reforms aimed at rejuvenating the city’s economy and enhancing residents’ livelihood, the Government has introduced initiatives to address housing affordability issues, promoting integrated development of culture, sports, and tourism, and building Hong Kong into an international hub for high-calibre talents. We will focus on these keynote policies from the Policy Address and set out in this article a list of key highlights involving the real estate and infrastructure sectors.

The right-sizing of commercial leases in Hong Kong SAR and Mainland China

In Hong Kong SAR and in Mainland China, we have observed an increase in the relative bargaining power of office tenants to negotiate their leases. A variety of factors, including a stronger supply of new office buildings and more negative economic sentiment among office tenants, have contributed to the evolution of landlord-tenant dynamics.

Hong Kong SAR Policy Address 2023

The Policy Address 2023 was delivered by the Hong Kong SAR Chief Executive, John Lee ("CE") on 25 October 2023. In addition to some expected initiatives to further promote the principle of "One Country, Two Systems" and further enhancements of National Security, the CE has introduced 73 new initiatives in what was probably one of the longest ever policy address speeches. Alongside the key initiatives to increase land and housing supply, the CE is also promoting various real estate, infrastructure and development projects to combat the slow-moving economy and a lacklustre property market. We set out a list of key takeaways which are relevant to our firm's practice in the real estate and infrastructure space. There are also other key areas which others may focus on such as the long awaited need to reform the GEM listing approach. A new listing route for R&D focussed companies will be created with new Listi...

Adoption of Green Leases in Hong Kong SAR – Part 1

In view of the rising popularity of green leases in various markets and the continued significance of sustainable practices, green leases must become an essential development in Hong Kong SAR. There is a wide range of sustainability standards, tenant obligations and methods for incorporating green practices – there is also a need for landlords and tenants to create a tailor-made solution in special circumstances for certain types of tenancies.

We will explore best practices for specific sustainability requirements with more specific examples in Part 2 of this series.
