Nov 12, 2020

New York Counsel Suzanne Berger has been named to the Westchester Power 100 list, by City & State New York. The annual list spotlights “business executives, labor leaders, academics, activists, advocates and others who are shaping the future of the county.”

Berger is featured at No. 27 on the list for her position as the newly elected chair of the Westchester County Democratic Committee. She was the first new chairperson in 16 years and the first woman ever elected party chair in Westchester.

At BCLP, Berger’s practice has a special emphasis on litigation and appellate work arising out of commercial loan enforcement, mortgage foreclosures, landlord-tenant disputes and construction issues.
