HUNTER IN 'BLOOMBERG LAW' ON MAIL-IN UNION ELECTIONS UNDER NLRB'S VIRUS FRAMEWORK

Dec 23, 2020

St. Louis Senior Counsel Jerry M. Hunter was quoted Dec. 21 by Bloomberg Law concerning the National Labor Relations Board's (NLRB) decision to order mail balloting in every union election scheduled, and how employers are responding. "It isn't reasonable for an employer to request a manual election when pandemic statistics virtually guarantee that regional directors will order mail balloting," said Hunter, who is also a former NLRB general counsel. "Employers should use their energy to negotiate for something as part of a stipulated election agreement, like longer or shorter election deadlines," Hunter also said.
