26 May 2021

On Wednesday 26 May, BCLP hosted the latest edition of our PropTech Conversation series, which focussed on the innovative and creative Israeli PropTech industry. Our guest for this conversation was Oded Eliashiv, the Founding Managing Partner of BuiltUp Ventures, an Israel-focussed PropTech VC firm with operations in New York and Tel Aviv.

Oded is responsible for identifying, choosing and leading the best PropTech start-ups Israel has to offer, and will give unique insight into trends in PropTech from an investing perspective, the most interesting PropTech businesses to emerge from Israel and the scale-up methodology born out of the 'Start Up Nation'.

Oded was in conversation with John Bennett who has over 35 years' experience of Corporate Real Estate transactional work, whose clients also include PropTech companies and investors.
