BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Kristin Frohne is a senior associate in the German employment law team.

She advises various national and international companies on all aspects of individual and collective labor law. Her responsibilities include both advisory and forensic activities and, in addition to strategic negotiation and litigation, also include the drafting and review of employment and service contracts and collective agreements such as works agreements. Furthermore, she works on labor law restructurings.

Prior to joining BCLP, Kristin worked as a lawyer primarily in the employment law department of a renowned medium-sized business law firm.

During her legal clerkship, she worked at the Labor Court of Frankfurt am Main and was admitted to the bar in summer 2019.
