PARTNER QUOTED BY MULTIPLE OUTLETS ON SUPREME COURT RULING IN UNION CASE

Jun 24, 2021

BCLP Partner Anthony George was quoted June 23 by Western Farm Press and Courthouse News Service concerning the ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court in favor of two California agribusinesses that challenged a state law allowing union representatives to enter their property without permission. George called the win significant for employers and agricultural companies. "The holding is limited to private property that is not open to the public," he said in a release. "For example, governments may still require property owners to allow members of the public to hand out leaflets at a shopping mall that is open to the public....Even with these limitations, today's ruling is welcome news for California agricultural employers and others facing government mandates that they open their doors to union organizers."
