

GUY W. BLACK

Manager of Government Affairs
Jefferson City

E: guy.black@bclplaw.com

T: +1 573 556 6636

BIOGRAPHY

A registered lobbyist with local, state and federal experience, Guy Black manages government affairs and provides strategic support within government for the firm and its clients. He has represented Emerson, Leggett & Platt, H&R Block and Anheuser-Busch to pass legislation impacting business organizations. Mr. Black also has represented Anheuser-Busch/In-Bevs, Boeing, Monsanto, Ford, General Motors, DaimlerChrysler, Pfizer, Procter & Gamble, Alcoa, Hussmann and Chevron on energy issues; Prepass / HELP, and Edward Kraemer & Sons on transportation issues; Saddlebrook on real estate matters; Larus Corporation on legislation impacting nursing homes; Harrisonville, Mo. on state regulations impacting municipal governments; Northrup Grumman, TC Energy, Keystone Oil Pipeline and ANR Pipelines on energy, land use, environmental and labor matters; Ethanex Energy on bio-fuel permitting; Hager Hinge Company on land rights and conservation issues; CGB Enterprises, Inc. and Zeno Grain on agriculture issues; Aurora Organic Dairy, Swiss RE, Ford Motor Company, and Noranda Aluminum on economic development and energy matters; Innovative Holdings / CFM Insurance, Brooke Corporation and Marsh McClellan on insurance issues; Philips North America and Bamboo Health on healthcare matters; Vi-Jon Inc., Family Dollar/Dollar Tree, and Curium on issues surrounding Covid 19; Justice Action Network on criminal law reform; and has represented the Missouri Botanical Gardens and Missouri History Museum. He regularly lobbies on regulatory and legislative and local government matters and has advised on political and issue campaigns.

Prior to joining the firm in 2002, Mr. Black served on the staff the Missouri State Senate.

EDUCATION

Drury College, B.A., 1999

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

- Public Policy & Government Affairs
- Energy & Natural Resources
- Corporate

RELATED INSIGHTS

Insights

Mar 18, 2020

The Supply Chain Challenge: Four Steps to Make Sure Shelter In Place Laws Don't Disrupt Your Supply Chain

In light of the Bay Area implementing Shelter in Place ordinances, such laws are now being considered throughout the country. This alert provides actionable steps companies can take to ensure that Shelter in Place laws in their jurisdictions do not inadvertently block employees from getting to work at their Essential Businesses.