DIDIER BRUÈRE-DAWSON INTERVIEWED BY LAW.COM

Aug 24, 2021

'Plan the landing': when covid brought a major European industry to a standstill, its lawyers sprung into action - article from Anne Bagamery - Law.com who interviewed Didier Bruère-Dawson, restructuring partner and expert of the hospitality industry at BCLP.

"In gymnastics, competitors know that in addition to hitting every other mark in their routines, they have to "stick the landing"â(EURO)"finish in style and walk away strong to compete another day.

Lawyers advising the hospitality industry in Europe say the same about their work helping clients through the COVID-19 pandemic, which hit hotels, restaurants, travel agents and transportation companies harder than just about any sector of the economy.

"The job of the lawyers is to plan the landing," said Didier Bruere-Dawson, a partner and hospitality specialist at Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner in Paris."
