Where's My Application for Tax-Exempt Status?

The IRS receives more than 95,000 applications for tax-exempt status each year. The webpage Where's My Application for Tax-Exempt Status? will help you determine when you can expect to hear from us. If your application was submitted after the postmark date in the chart, it has not yet been assigned to an Exempt Organizations specialist. Keep checking this web page for updates and await IRS contact. There is no need to call. If you submitted your application before the postmark date in the chart and the IRS has not contacted you regarding your application, the webpage tells you how to contact us to check on the status of your application.
