ANDREW STREET APPOINTED TO ENGLAND BOXING NATIONAL DISCIPLINARY PANEL

Dec 14, 2021

We are delighted to announce that Andrew Street has been appointed to be a chair and panel member on the England Boxing National Disciplinary Panel.

England Boxing is the governing body for boxing in England, overseeing more than 900 affiliated boxing clubs. Appointments to the panel were originally made in 2020 and have now become live with the full resumption of sport in 2021. In light of this, the term of panel members has also been extended out to 2024.

Members of the panel have recently completed training with Sport Resolutions, the leading dispute resolution service for sports, with a view to now commencing their appointments as Panel Members on disciplinary matters.

Andrew is also on the Sport Resolutions pro bono panel, on which he and the firm have acted on a number of sports related cases for those in UK elite sport programmes in need of pro bono assistance.
