BCLP ADVISES AGILITAS ON THE BUYOUT OF PRODIECO

Dec 23, 2021

SUMMARY

International law firm BCLP, advised Agilitas Private Equity (Agilitas) on the buyout of Prodieco Advanced Engineering Solutions (Prodieco), a leader in precision engineering for European blister packaging lines.

Based in Dublin, Ireland, Prodieco designs, manufacturers and supplies bespoke precision blister tooling change parts for blister packaging lines for pharmaceutical, animal and consumer health market products. The company employs in excess of 230 highly skilled people globally providing its products and services to customers in over 55 countries across multiple continents.

BCLP Partner Simon Beddow said: “We were delighted to act for Agilitas on the buyout of the Prodieco Group working closely with the Agilitas deal team to achieve a successful completion. A cross office and cross disciplinary team at BCLP worked closely with firms from our preferred firm network in this latest deal for our Private Equity team”.

The multi-disciplinary BCLP team was led by Corporate Transactions Partners Simon Beddow and Kurt Ma and involved teams from across Finance, Tax, Labour & Employment, Technology & Commercial, Employee Benefits, Data privacy & Security, Anti-Bribery & Corruption, Restructuring & Insolvency, Regulatory Compliance, Anti-trust and Competition and Legal Project Management in London, Manchester and Brussels.

The team also worked alongside legal teams from Irish law firm Mason Hayes & Curran LLP, Brazilian law firm Machado Meyer Sendacz and Opice Advogados and Polish law firm Domański Zakrzewski Palinka sp. k.
