SUMMARY

International law firm BCLP has announced that 13 of its 18 trainees across London and Hong Kong SAR have accepted roles in the firm, with a spring (March) retention rate of 72% across the two regions, and 71% in London.

Offers were made to 15 trainees who applied for a role in this qualifying intake. Of the eighteen trainees, five have decided to pursue their legal careers outside of BCLP.

Five of the newly qualified solicitors (NQs) will join BCLP's Corporate & Finance Transactions Practice, four will qualify into Litigation & Investigations and four will join the Real Estate Practice.

Senior Emerging Talent Adviser Grace Ambrose said: "As we all continue to feel the impact of Covid on our working lives we are proud of the resilience our trainee cohort has shown and are delighted that we were able to extend offers in our key practices to so many NQs. We continue our commitment to attracting, developing and retaining junior talent, and are thrilled that so many wish to remain with the firm and progress their legal careers with BCLP."
