BCLP'S GROWING PARIS OFFICE PROFILED IN LJA MAG

Mar 25, 2022

SUMMARY

Partners Olivier Mesmin and Constantin Achillas, BCLP Paris office co-partners in charge, were interviewed by the Lettre des Juristes d'Affaires magazine (LJA Mag – subscription needed) regarding the firm's recent activity in France and long-term ambitions.

In line with the firm's strategy to make BCLP one of the key legal players in France, the firm in January moved its 90 lawyers and staff to 36, rue La Fayette in the heart of the 9th arrondissement. Previously spread over two sites, this brings BCLP's Paris-based teams together in a single location.

The publication noted that BCLP in France has grown and evolved considerably over the past two years. Today the firm covers the full range of business law in Paris: real estate, financing, tax, corporate M&A, litigation and investigations, competition law, employment law, public law and energy. Working alongside major groups, SMEs and funds, both French and international, the Paris team stands out for its experience and its ability to assist clients with their local and international issues.
