PARTNER AUTHORS ARTICLE IN LAWINSPOORT ON CHALLENGES REMAINING FOR WOMEN'S US SOCCER

Apr 01, 2022

BCLP Partner Sarah Hartley authored an article published March 30 by LawInSport examining the US Soccer Federation's (USSF) settlement of its long-running equal pay dispute with the US Women's National Team (the USWNT). Sarah considers issues at the background of the equal pay dispute, the history of the litigation, the settlement, and the outstanding challenges remaining to achieve equal pay. Sarah is a member of BCLP's Sports & Entertainment Group and regularly handles sports compliance and governance issues, as well as consulting on and handling contentious disputes regarding allegations of sexual misconduct by coaches, athletic personnel, and others.
