May 04, 2022

BCLP Partner Liz Blackwell was named an honoree for the St. Louis Business Journal's 2022 Business of Pride Awards program.

“The second annual class of Business of Pride Awards honorees celebrate both LGBTQIA+ leaders and allies who are successful in their careers, active in their communities, and are advocates for inclusion and equality,” the Business Journal stated.

Liz has nearly 25 years of experience defending agricultural, food and consumer product manufacturers in high-profile litigation across the nation. As newly-elected member of the firm’s global Board and Chair of the firm’s global LGBTQ* Lawyers Affinity Group, Liz is invested in helping to foster a positive and inclusive culture within BCLP.

The honorees will be included in a special section of the Business Journal honoring this year’s Pride honorees in the June 24 issue.
