BCLP LAWYERS PRESENT AT INTERNATIONAL FINANCE FORUM 2022

May 31, 2022

BCLP Partner Barry Gross and Senior Associate Rachel Sheridan will present at the Tech Capital International Finance Forum 2022 (IFF22), June 8 in London. The private networking and transactional event presents an in-depth, multi-session agenda focused on bringing together business leaders, financiers, investors, senior legal advisers, strategists, trendspotters and the visionaries in charge of building digital infrastructure across the globe to debate, inspire and connect.

Barry will speak on the panel “Regulation and legislation,” which will cover the current and future legislative and regulatory environment for digital infrastructure. In an age where technology and cyber are leaping ahead what are the regulatory challenges that are likely to arise? What does the future hold for investors and funders in the digital space? How does the global cross-border nature of digital interact with the increasingly protectionist and conflicting policies of western and emerging markets.

Rachel will chair the panel “ESG: Key Trends and Investment Stewardship,” which will cover how to integrate social and environmental values into investment portfolios, how to factor ESG non-financial elements to identify material risks and growth opportunities, how to manage direct exposure to private equity or real assets, and more.
