A PROFILE OF BCLP PARIS – HIGHLIGHTS AND THE OFFICE’S AMBITIONS FOR THE COMING YEARS

Jul 25, 2022

SUMMARY

Olivier Mesmin, Co-managing partner, Didier Bruère-Dawson, Restructuring partner and Roland Montfort, Mergers & Acquisitions partner, were interviewed by Décideurs Magazine on July 7 2022 in an article dedicated to the future ambitions of BCLP Paris. This was also an opportunity to review the evolution of the Paris office since its beginnings.

Regarding the Real Estate practice, Olivier Mesmin explains, “It is a historically successful firm in real estate, particularly in London and Germany. In Paris, where the practice is growing, we will welcome a fourth partner in this practice, while working regularly with partners and associates in the tax, finance and public law practices”.

With regards to M&A, Roland Montfort stressed the importance of “being constantly aware of the different sensitivities of the core team in order to organize the team and keep it in perfect battle order during the firm's involvement”.

The article also mentions the firm's investment in diversity and inclusion matters. Didier Bruère-Dawson explains: “Diversity is both an issue for companies, which must take over from the State, and an obligation internally and for their clients, who are legitimately increasingly demanding”.
