BIOGRAPHY

Liam is an associate in BCLP's market-leading Real Estates Disputes team, advising on high-value property litigation and mitigating risk on complex transactions in the real estate sector. He advises commercial and residential landlords, developers, and occupiers.

Liam has significant experience across the UK court system and specialist tribunals, including the High Court, First-tier Tribunal and County Court. Liam has recently conducted litigation for residential landlords. He successfully defended a High Court claim against nuisance, breach of quiet enjoyment and breach of contract. Liam acted for a residential landlord on a dispute concerning service charge recoverability. He advises landlords on the recovery of service charge, including the application of the Building Safety Act 2022 and section 20 consultations. Liam has also acted in opposed lease renewals.

Liam regularly works on development-related issues. He works with developers to mitigate rights of light risk, including advising on negotiation strategy, insurance, and light obstruction notices. He advises on other easements, including rights of way, as well as other landlord and tenant issues such as quiet enjoyment, repairing obligations, break clauses, dilapidations and rent review. Liam works with BCLP's Real Estate team to manage risk on complex real estate transactions and developments.

Liam has worked on several pro bono projects at BCLP. He recently worked on the Windrush Project, assisting with a successful application under the Windrush Compensation Scheme.
