BCLP RANKED IN GLOBAL COMPETITION REVIEW'S 'GCR 100 2023'

Dec 21, 2022

International law firm BCLP is ranked in three jurisdictions in the 2023 edition of the Global Competition Review 100, an annual listing of the world's leading competition practices. BCLP's French practice made its debut in rankings and is ranked "Recommended" in France. BCLP is also ranked as "Highly Recommend" in EU Claimants' Bar and "Recommended" in the United Kingdom.

The publication noted BCLP as a popular pick among large corporate clients, especially in regulated markets, and highlighted some of the team's top cases of 2022. GCR also highlighted BCLP's growing competition practice and referenced Victoria Newbold's and Julie Catala Marty's recent moves to BCLP.

"I'm delighted to see the global competition practice and its team members across the UK, Brussels and Paris recognised by GCR. It is a tribute to the amazing spirit, commitment and skill of all the team. We are grateful to our clients who have given us the opportunity to support them on a wide range of critical and complex strategic matters in 2022 " said Andrew Hockley, global head of BCLP's Antitrust & Competition Practice.

BCLP lawyers referenced include: Julie Catala Marty, Rémi Beydon, Andrew Hockley, Edward Coulson and Victoria Newbold.
