BCLP GLOBAL HEAD OF HEALTHCARE JENNIFER CSIK HUTCHENS APPOINTED AS AHLA BOARD MEMBER

Apr 20, 2023

International law firm BCLP announced that Partner Jennifer Csik Hutchens has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the American Health Law Association (AHLA). Jennifer is one of only three healthcare law practitioners nationally to be appointed to the AHLA Board. The AHLA has over 13,000 member practitioners across the U.S.

Jennifer is the Global Head of the BCLP Healthcare Practice, with a presence across the firm's 31 offices in the U.S. and abroad. Jennifer's comprehensive strategic, operations and compliance practice is leading the firm's deep advisory role as trusted counsel to clients across the industry. She is keenly focused on topics of health innovation, including health AI, telehealth, concierge medicine and price transparency.

"I am thrilled with Jennifer's appointment as a new AHLA Board member," said David S. Cade, Chief Executive Officer of AHLA. "Jennifer is an ambassador for health law education, emulates the values found in AHLA's mission, and has been a major contributor to AHLA's success over the years. On behalf of the AHLA Board of Directors, we are delighted to welcome Jennifer to the Board and look forward to seeing the impact they will have on the future success of the AHLA."

Through the AHLA as well as other industry groups, Jennifer is a prolific speaker and author on healthcare law topics. She prioritizes mentorship of other practitioners within the field of healthcare law and is a tireless champion for DEI. She looks forward to continuing to serve the healthcare law community through this AHLA Board appointment.

Jennifer will assume office after the Annual Meeting in San Francisco, California, on July 1.
