BCLP has been recognized in the Chambers and Partners Crisis & Risk Management Global-wide ESG Risk (Law Firms) 2023 guide for the third consecutive year with our first ranking appearing in 2021, the guide's inaugural year.

Our firm's offering "combines the expertise of environmental projects and sustainable finance experts spanning the UK, the US, Europe and Asia. The team advises on matters ranging from green loan projects in APAC and supply chain risk in the UK and US, to ESG, corporate and product governance guidelines for banks in the European Union."

Our clients select us because we "offer support in all compartments with seasoned and efficient professionals [who] are super responsive and strongly client-minded."

BCLP was highlighted this year for its work with Qair International, led by Jean-Pierre Delvigne, "an independent renewable energy producer, on three issues of green bonds totalling EUR88.9 million (EUR12 million, EUR71.9 million and EUR5 million)."

Partner and General Counsel for EMEA and Asia Nicole Bigby also received a first-time individual practitioner ranking for her advice to clients "on responsible and sustainable business frameworks and issues with a specific focus on, human rights, social and governance risks, stakeholders and social impact, and reputation risk management across a range of sectors."
