LEXISNEXIS '40 UNDER 40' IN ASIA PACIFIC RECOGNIZES BCLP PARTNER

Oct 11, 2023

Partner Tun Zaw Mra from our Singapore office has been included on LexisNexis' 40 under 40 in the Asia Pacific list. The global information and analytics company noted Tun's strong corporate practice as well as his involvement in pro bono and civic work.

Tun has experience advising on a broad range of corporate transactions across the UK, Europe and the Asia Pacific region. He has advised on investments, mergers and acquisitions, disposals and joint ventures in developed as well as emerging markets. He has particular experience in the real estate, energy and infrastructure, insurance, financial services, technology and hospitality sectors. He regularly advises multinational companies on all corporate aspects of their investment in emerging jurisdictions.

"With a career spanning continents and legal jurisdictions, Tun is a luminary in the realm of Mergers & Acquisitions law," LexisNexis noted. "He built an international reputation while working in London and Singapore, advising Asia-based clients on corporate real estate transactions in the UK and assisting global clients on business endeavors in Asia. Beyond legal acumen, Tun elevates the industry through his commitment to innovation and social responsibility."

LexisNexis also cited Tun's service on the Energy and Utilities Committee and the Legal Working Group of the British Chamber of Commerce in Singapore and Myanmar, respectively, as well as his participation in the firm's pro bono efforts in the Singapore office in his 40 under 40 profile.
