BCLP'S TAX PRACTICE GETS BOOST WITH NEW PARTNER

Nov 13, 2023

International law firm BCLP announced today that Partner David Holmberg has joined the firm in the New York office. David joins the Global Tax Practice.

David's tax practice focuses on private equity real estate, direct lending and distressed strategies with respect to same. David advises clients on tax aspects of complex commercial real estate transactions including joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, debt workouts and restructurings, and has significant experience with public and private REITs and cross-border engagements.

"David adds depth and breadth to our global real estate tax team, joining Janessa Griffin and Frank Crisafi. We are excited to welcome David to the team and share his background and experience with our colleagues and clients," said Elizabeth Bradley, partner and leader of the Global Tax Practice.

David joins from Akin Gump.
