

JORDAN REINERT

Senior Associate

Paris

E: jordan.reinert@bclplaw.com

T: +33 \(0\) 1 44 17 77 56

BIOGRAPHY

Jordan practices in the area of corporate law, advising private equity firms, real estate funds as well as private companies on a wide range of domestic and cross-border transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and corporate reorganisations.

Prior to joining the firm, Jordan worked for several years in an international law firm in Luxembourg.

Jordan is admitted to the Luxembourg and Paris bars.

ADMISSIONS

- Paris

RELATED CAPABILITIES

- M&A & Corporate Finance
- Corporate

EXPERIENCE

- Advised a Palo Alto-based private equity firm which specialises in investments in the software, data analytics and software-based technology services sectors, in connection with its acquisition of a US leading name in the provision of project and portfolio management software, and in particular on the setting up of the Luxembourg acquisition structure and re-investment of the sellers into the Luxembourg holding vehicle, as well as the implementation of an incentive scheme.
- Advised an airline company in a restructuring to bridge urgent liquidity bottlenecks caused by the effects of COVID-19.
- Advised one of the largest financial institutions in Saudi Arabia on the establishment of a Sharia-compliant and tax efficient Luxembourg structure to acquire an office building under development in Brussels.
- Advised an American global financial services company specialized in the management of payment terminals and financial transactions on the restructuring of its holding structure.
- Advised a Chinese leading sports industry company in the refinancing of a European football club following the disruption and loss of income caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.

RELATED INSIGHTS

News

Jun 11, 2025

BCLP advises NatWest on financing facility for build-to-rent portfolio acquisition

News

Sep 16, 2024

BCLP advise Burstone on their strategic partnership with Blackstone in relation to its €1.1bn pan-European logistics portfolio

