BIOGRAPHY

Agnieszka is an Associate in the BCLP International Arbitration practice, based in London. Her arbitration practice focuses on international commercial arbitrations (LCIA, ICC), including joint ventures and licensing disputes. She also has a record of acting for parties operating in the energy sector. Agnieszka has been involved in arbitral award challenge proceedings as well as mediations. Her engagements include acting as secretary to arbitral tribunals.

Prior to joining the BCLP International Arbitration practice, Agnieszka gained extensive experience in the Business and Commercial Disputes department, where she acted on complex litigation matters. Agnieszka speaks English and Polish. Agnieszka is experienced in both civil and common law - she holds a Master's Degree in Law from Jagiellonian University in Poland, which complements her arbitration practice.
