Feb 28, 2024

Partners Daniel Csefalvay and Eric Martin authored an article in Law360 that shares predictions on the regulatory outlook for decentralized finance (DeFi) in the U.S. and U.K. Law Clerk Gage Salicki assisted in drafting.

In a fast-evolving landscape, it is crucial to balance innovation with safeguarding against financial stability risks. Anticipated for this year are growing DeFi legal issues in the U.S., acceptance of DeFi within current U.K. and EU regulations and potential outflows of DeFi projects from the U.S. unless the U.S. substantially shifts in approach.
