BIOGRAPHY

Charles “Chip” Jordan is a maritime and aviation trial lawyer with a broad spectrum of experience. His practice includes personal injury, cargo and hull damage, and insurance coverage issues. His clients include vessel and aircraft owners, underwriters, ports, government agencies, and international commissions. Chip is known and respected for his thoughtful, meticulous, and effective case preparation.

Chip is an accomplished sailor, having circumnavigated the globe in a wooden sailboat before law school. He and his wife now live on a 75-year-old converted cargo vessel.
