BLOOMBERG LAW NAMES CHRISTIAN BROMLEY AS 2024 TOP ATTORNEY UNDER 40

Jul 30, 2024

Partner Christian Bromley and co-leader of BCLP's Toxic Tort Practice has been recognized as one of 40 leading young lawyers nationwide in Bloomberg Law's annual "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40."

Christian is among a select group of young lawyers nationwide highlighted for their accomplishments across a wide range of practice areas and organizations.

In an exclusive interview with Bloomberg, Christian shares some of his most substantial client matters, including his decade-long work in a series of environmental tort matters related to the alleged presence of per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS), as well as his extensive pro bono work and his lessons learned in practice.

Discussing some of the greatest advice he has received from his mentors, Christian said: "First, find your home." He found that professional home at BCLP. "Second, find your voice," he said. Christian has found that voice in various leadership roles at BCLP throughout his career—from the firm's inaugural Global Associate Council to co-chairing the US LGBTQ+ Affinity Group to co-leading the Toxic Tort Practice.

Bloomberg Law's "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40" initiative recognizes an accomplished group of individuals who inspire their law firms, companies, non-profit organizations and government agencies to elevate, innovate and serve — not only clients but their communities beyond. Nominees are evaluated on their achievements in client service, leadership capabilities, and dedication to pro bono activities.
