BIOGRAPHY

Shivani is a partner in the Business and Commercial Disputes team in BCLP's London office. She has more than 15 years experience in strategically resolving complex, high-value, multi-stakeholder, cross-border Commercial Litigations and International Arbitrations. She is also dual-qualified as a Solicitor-Advocate in England and Wales and as an Advocate in India.

Shivani leads complex & high-profile commercial litigations and international arbitrations, managing concurrent proceedings in multiple jurisdictions - such as India, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Luxembourg, Cyprus, Bulgaria, and the Balkan region - with key responsibility for developing global case strategy and delivering commercially driven outcomes for her clients.

She acts for corporates, high-net worth and ultra high net worth individuals on disputes arising in a variety of sectors, including construction, mining, media, hotels, energy, telecoms, banking, private equity, pharma, and software technology.

Shivani has represented clients in many high-profile cases before the English courts, including the English High Court, Court of Appeal and the UK Supreme Court.

She has also acted for clients in complex high-stake arbitrations, under the rules of various arbitration institutions such as the ICC, LCIA, SCC and SIAC, in venues around the world, as well as on investor state arbitrations. She has significant experience in Emergency Arbitrations, and in matters involving fraud, conspiracy, and world-wide freezing injunctions.

Shivani is recognised by Law.Asia and India Business Law Journal as 'one of the top international lawyers for India-related matters worldwide', and is featured in India Business Law Journal's "A-list of India specialists around the world". She is also a Steering Committee member of Indian Women in International Arbitration (IWIA).
