BCLP RECOGNIZED IN GLOBAL ARBITRATION REVIEW 100 2025

Apr 16, 2025

Global Co-leader for International Arbitration, George Burn, was noted for leading his team with “great skill and experience and has a very clear view of the broad picture and not only the small details”. Another client described Burn as an “expert in ICSID arbitration who picks up on critical detail and due diligence on the case”.

A client commended Global Co-leader for International Arbitration, Pedro Martinez-Fraga, for the “clear respect” demonstrated by arbitrators toward him. BCLP helped the company settle a case and avoid a complex arbitration.

A client who chose BCLP for an LCIA arbitration described the team as “very professional” and “very dedicated and motivated in their work”, with “good attention to details”.

The firm’s Hong Kong SAR team was also praised by a client who relied on them for multiple cases as “punch[ing] above its weight, [it] is one of the leading construction arbitration practices in Hong Kong”.

Hong Kong SAR-based Partner, Glenn Haley, was specifically highlighted for being “very commercial in his approach and not [being] afraid to call a ‘spade a spade’ and to go above and beyond for his clients. He has a great strategic compass and provides thoughtful and astute advice”.

Global Arbitration Review 100 is a global guide to specialist international arbitrational practices.
