BCLP PARTNER CHRISTIAN BROMLEY NAMED TO LEADERSHIP ATLANTA CLASS OF 2026

Apr 30, 2025

BCLP Partner Christian Bromley has been selected to join the Leadership Atlanta Class of 2026, one of the region's most prestigious community leadership programs.

Christian is among 82 dynamic leaders across metro Atlanta chosen for this nine-month experience, which is designed to deepen their understanding of the region's most pressing issues and strengthen their impact as leaders. Through retreats, seminars, community tours, and service projects, members of the Class of 2026 will build lasting connections and engage in critical conversations that move the community forward.

With a longstanding commitment to client service, mentorship, and civic involvement, Christian co-leads BCLP's Toxic Tort Practice, co-chairs the firm's LGBTQ+ Affinity Group in the U.S., and serves on the National Recruiting Committee as co-hiring partner for the Atlanta office. His practice focuses on complex commercial disputes and mass tort litigation, including product liability, environmental contamination, and insurance. He regularly advocates for clients before courts and arbitral tribunals nationwide, operating from his dual base in Atlanta and Los Angeles.

Founded in 1969, Leadership Atlanta is one of the nation's oldest and most respected leadership development programs. Its mission is to educate and connect established leaders across industries, inspiring them to serve the common good and help shape a stronger, more inclusive future for the Atlanta region.
