BCLP TO HOST CICES COMMERCIAL MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE 2025

Jun 02, 2025

BCLP's London office will be hosting a commercial management conference on behalf of the Chartered Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyor on June 25, 2025 between 13:00 and 19:00. The conference this year will address a range of legal and commercial issues concerning the infrastructure sector, including the effect of technology and digital transformation, contractual risk allocation & processes, as well as dispute resolution.

The conference will include over 10 speakers who are widely regarded as leaders in their respective fields, including BCLP Partner, Shy Jackson, who will deliver a Construction Legal Update covering key case law from the past year.

The Chartered Institution of Civil Engineering Surveyors (CICES) is the leading international professional body for specialists in geospatial engineering and commercial management in infrastructure. Founded in 1969, CICES is now an internationally recognised qualifying body established to regulate, educate and train surveyors working within civil engineering and is also a registered educational charity promoting the profession throughout the world.

The conference will be followed by a drinks reception and registration is open to CICES Members.
