2024 BCLP PRO BONO REPORT: UPHOLDING JUSTICE

Jul 15, 2025

At BCLP, we're committed to sharing our professional skills on a pro bono basis. This reflects our core value of making a positive contribution to our communities and society. We encourage all of our lawyers and other legal professionals to engage in pro bono work. We view it as a professional obligation. Our pro bono program prioritizes offering legal services that address the needs of the underserved and advocate for civil rights, human rights, civil liberties and public rights.

Our 2024 Pro Bono Report reflects these efforts across our global offices. Whether our work involved assisting individual clients, working on community legal projects alongside local legal services organizations, or handling significant litigation with public interest groups, our pro bono work is always impactful and meaningful – to our clients, to our community and to our firm. Our 2024 report highlights some of that work.
