LEGAL BUSINESS “GREEN AMBASSADORS” EUROPE 2025

Jul 16, 2025

International law firm BCLP has been recognized in the Legal Business Green Ambassadors Europe 2025 for France as a first choice advisor to clients on renewable energy transactions.

Global Co-Leader of BCLP’s Energy Transition Team David Blondel, and Co-Head of our Energy Team in France Jean-Pierre Delvigne have been named “Green Ambassadors” for their contributions to the renewable energy sector.

They advise clients on complex national and cross-border transactions in renewable energy and infrastructure, including wind, solar, energy storage, and EV charging. These areas are critical areas for addressing the challenges of the energy transition and promoting sustainable practices.

The judges commented:

“David Blondel’s expertise is particularly valued on complex projects in the wind, solar, energy storage, and electric vehicle charging infrastructure segments, demonstrating an ability to support clients across the entire lifecycle.”

“With extensive experience in the renewable energy sector, Jean-Pierre Delvigne recently advised major clients on one of France’s largest financing operations for solar self-consumption, showcasing his deep expertise in innovative energy solutions.”

Both were also praised for their active involvement in the business community, notably through their membership in the Syndicat des Energies Renouvelables (Renewable Energy Association) and Enerplan, as well as their attendance at the ‘Time to Change’ event organized by GreenUnivers.

David Blondel and Jean-Pierre Delvigne’s essential contribution to this ecosystem illustrates BCLP’s commitment to supporting the global transition to sustainable energy, thus fully capturing the Green Ambassador spirit of uniting different disciplines around a shared goal of sustainable development.
